

PRESSEMEDLING

ColliCare growing in the Baltics

Klaipeda, September 2015 – new branch in Lithuania – office and 4000 square meter terminal.

At the terminal in Klaipeda goods from all over Baltics are consolidated. Every week trucks and containers leave for the big cities in Scandinavia and the Continent. Direct transport is arranged to avoid unnecessary reloading.

Cross docking, transferal of Edi information and scanning of all goods is in place from day one.

Our customers need a transparent set up and predictable deliveries. This is the motivation for the new logistics service from the Baltics.

The ColliCare department in Klaipeda offers all kind of logistics services. Import, export, customs and terminal operations.

ColliCare have been represented in Lithuania since January 2015, when a sales office was established in Vilnius.

“Many companies are looking to Baltics for production. We strive to be represented in strategically placed locations, and this new establishment is natural and important part of this work.”
